

AGUSTA S.p.A. TO AGUSTA WESTLAND S.p.A.(ITALY)

Effective immediately, Agusta S.p.A. will change as follows: Agusta Westland S.p.A. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Managing Director of DDTC is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for amendments to change currently approved authorizations.

All currently approved agreement authorizations identifying Agusta S.p.A. will not require an amendment to reflect the name change to Agusta Westland S.p.A. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying Agusta S.p.A. as a party to the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license applications received after July 31, 2011, identifying Agusta S.p.A. as a party to the agreement may be returned without action for correction to the new name, Agusta Westland S.p.A.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs & Border Protection at time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements held by a third-party will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this name change. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such. New DSP-83s must be executed as a result of the name change, as applicable.

Pending agreement applications will be adjudicated without prejudice. With the filing of the executed agreement, the agreement holder must attach a copy of this web notice as explanation for the name change in the executed agreement.
